

Sinclair Broadcasting's decision to air an anti-Kerry documentary days before the election is great .They should be able to put whatever they want on there stations.